EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

CHAPTER 7 REPRESENTATION AND FEE AGREEMENT (the "Agreement")

I, ERIKA CANZA, and [Signature] (the "Client"), hire Corbin Law Firm, LLC and its representative attorney, Arthur Corbin ("CLF"), to represent Client in a bankruptcy case to be filed under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Case"). If Client later desires to file under Chapter 13 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, the parties will execute a new representation agreement. CLF is hired and will take calls from creditors and start work ONLY when (1) Client has signed this Agreement, AND (2) CLF has accepted payment of initial retainer.

1. Attorney's Fees and Filing Fee and Costs

- a) Attorney's Fees. Client will pay CLF a flat fee of $ 500.00 in attorney's fees for services under this Agreement. Client agrees to pay CLF an INITIAL RETAINER of $ 500.00 for attorney's fees leaving a balance due of $ 0.00. Attorney's fees must be paid in full before the case is filed.

i. Advance Payment Retainer. Any payment of attorney's fees received by CLF will be treated as an ADVANCE PAYMENT RETAINER. This means that the funds received by CLF will become income immediately and the property of CLF. Client understands that Client ordinarily has the option to deposit funds with an attorney that shall remain Client's property. However, Client also understands that CLF does not represent clients under such a security retainer because a security retainer will be within reach of Client's creditors and because CLF will immediately start working on the Case.

ii. "Work Done" Basis. Attorney's fees are earned on a "work done" basis. This includes any work done without charge before you hired CLF including, but not limited to, analysis, review, research, and conferences. This means that any fees Clients pays after CLF is hired will already be partially or fully earned. If Client terminates CLF's representation or if CLF withdraws its representation due Client's breach of the terms in this Agreement, Client may not be entitled to a refund based on "work done" even if the Case is not filed. CLF charges an hourly rate of $250.00 per hour for attorney time and $90.00 per hour for administrative staff time.

iii. Payment Plans. SECOND payment $ _____ due on _____. THIRD payment due $ _____ due on _____. FOURTH payment $ _____ due on _____.

- b) Filing Fee. The court's Chapter 7 FILING FEE is $335.00. The filing fee is IN ADDITION to attorney's fees above. Court costs must be paid before the case is filed.

- c) Other Costs and Fees NOT Included Under this Agreement:

- i. Pre-Filing and Pre-Discharge Credit Counseling Requirement and Credit Report. Client is responsible for the costs of obtaining the pre-filing credit counseling certificate and the pre-discharge financial management / debtor's education course certificate from an approved credit counseling agency of Client's choice. Client is also responsible for the costs of obtaining a consumer credit report from CLF or another entity of Client's choice.
- ii. Missed Hearings or Trustee Meeting. Client agrees to pay CLF $250 for each Section 341 meeting that is continued due to Client's fault.
- iii. Amendments. Client will pay CLF $100 to make amendments to the Case, if amendments are required due to Client's fault. Most common amendments are necessitated by omitted creditors, property, or inaccurate or incomplete information about Client's financial history.

2. Assignment of Funds. Client assigns to CLF all amounts tendered as filing fees or court costs and authorizes CLF to transfer said funds from CLF's client trust account to CLF's operating account in payment of outstanding fees and costs owed to CLF.

3. Scope of Representation.

1. CLF Duties under this Agreement. CLF will: (1) provide and explain all notices as required by the U.S. Bankruptcy Code; (2) advise about Chapters 7, 13, 11 and 12 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and credit counseling services; (3) analyze Client's situation; (4) prepare the Voluntary Petition, Schedules, Statement of Affairs, Means Test, Creditor Matrix, and other court documents as required by the U.S. Bankruptcy Code (collectively the "Petition"); (5) file the documents with the court; (6) represent Client at the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors (Trustee Meeting) or provide another attorney; (7) advise about reaffirmation, redemption, or pay and retain (if applicable); (8) assist in amendments to documents filed and in production of required documents; (9) file the debtor's education certificate on behalf of Client; (10) monitor the case and communicate with the Client, creditors, the bankruptcy trustee, the court, and other parties involved until the Case is discharged and closed, dismissed and closed, or until CLF's representation is otherwise terminated under the provisions of this Agreement.

2. The matters in which CLF WILL NOT represent Client under this Agreement.

- i. A trustee, creditor, U.S. Trustee, and when applicable, the Client, may file adversary proceedings, motions, and initiate other contested matters inside the bankruptcy case. These may include, but are not limited to: (a) Denial or revocation of discharge;

(b) Declaration of a particular debt as dischargeable or not dischargeable; (c) Lifting the automatic stay to allow foreclosure or repossession; (d) Extended evidentiary hearings and examinations other than the initial trustee meeting; (e) Trials; (f) Appeals; (g) Enforcement of the discharge injunction or automatic stay; (h) Judicial Lien avoidance; (i) Negotiation and representation in redemption and reaffirmation; (j) Motions to reopen case (plus court costs of $260.00).

While unusual, such actions do occasionally happen and are complicated and expensive to handle. Such matters are therefore not included in the services under this Agreement.

- ii. Other matters. CLF is not representing Client in state or other courts or tribunals. Nor is CLF responsible for any actions to which the bankruptcy automatic stay does not apply. CLF is not responsible for fixing credit report errors.

For the excluded matters listed in this section, Client may retain CLF or any other attorney of Client's choice to represent Client. Client may retain CLF, if CLF agrees to represent Client, for a separate fee to be agreed upon under a separate written representation agreement.

4. Client has been informed and understands that:

- Credit Report. Bankruptcy is a "financial event" and a public proceeding. As such, Client understands that the bankruptcy will be reported on Client's credit report for up to 10 years and will be available as a public record. The bankruptcy may have a negative effect on Client's credit score and negatively impact Client's ability to obtain future credit or refinancing.
- Time is of the essence. Any delay by Client to cooperate with CLF may disqualify Client from the Case or otherwise adversely affect the Case. Client also understands that changes in Client's circumstances may change the advice given including eligibility for this Case. If any fees are not paid when due, or if Client's actions or inactions or changes in circumstances (even if beyond Client's control) make the case not ready to be filed within 90 days after retaining CLF, CLF may charge additional fees or close the case.
- Important Bankruptcy Concepts. CLF has explained the bankruptcy automatic stay, exemptions, discharge and dischargeability, redemption and reaffirmation (if applicable), and pre-filing and post-filing procedures, including the pre-filing credit counseling course and pre-discharge debtor education course requirements.
- Automatic Stay. Calls, lawsuits, wage garnishments and other actions to collect may continue and liens can attach to your property until the bankruptcy case is filed.
- Creditors. Client understands that credit report(s) may not include every debt Client owes, and Client understands it is Client's responsibility to provide CLF with every debt and every creditor address.
- Illegal Actions by Creditors. CLF is not responsible for any illegal actions taken by creditors once the Case is filed.
- Collections Actions. Collections actions, including lawsuits, repossession, letters, calls, attachment of liens, wage-garnishments, levy of bank accounts, and other collections proceedings such as Citation to Discover Assets will continue until the case is filed, and that Client may permanently lose property.
- Two Credit Counseling Courses Required. Client understands that (a) the Case will not be filed until Client completes the credit counseling course and provides CLF with the certificate of completion, (b) the Case will be closed without a discharge if Client fails to provide CLF with the certificate of completion for the debtor education course.
- Production of Documents. Client acknowledges that CLF has provided Client with a checklist of documents and information required to file the Case (the "Checklist of Required Documents"). Client understands the CLF may request additional documents and information.
- Non-Dischargeability. That filing under chapter 7 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code eliminates dischargeable debts and that certain debts are not dischargeable. If applicable, CLF will provide to Client a list of debts that will not be discharged in a document titled "Non-Dischargeable Debts."
- When Case is Filed. The Case will not be filed until Client (1) pays all fees and costs; (2) provides all documents and information including the credit counseling certificate of completion; (3) and reviews and signs the Petition. Unless otherwise agreed to between CLF and Client under Paragraph 9 of this Agreement, CLF may take up to 30 days after receiving all documents and information from Client to complete the final draft of the Petition.
- Bankruptcy Notices. Client acknowledges that CLF has provided and explained all notices required by Section 527 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

5. Client Duties. Client agrees to:

- Production of Documents and Information. (a) Client will provide CLF with the documents listed on the Checklist of Required Documents and any other documents and information CLF may request. (b) Client will provide any documents or information to the trustee as he or she may request.
- Truthfulness. Client provide accurate and complete information and documentation as requested by CLF and the trustee, including, but not limited to: (1) all income as requested; (2) all assets (anywhere in the world and even partial interests); (3) all creditors and debts; (4) all expenses; (5) history of financial matters; (6) history of property ownership and transfers going back up to 10 years. All disclosures in the Petition, to the trustee, and the bankruptcy court are made under the penalty of perjury. Incomplete or inaccurate disclosures (including the concealment and certain transfers of assets) may constitute bankruptcy fraud and the matter may be referred to the FBI for investigation. Possible penalties may include loss or revocation of discharge, loss of exemption, fine up to $250,000, and up to 5 years imprisonment.

- Time is of the Essence and Cooperation. Client will cooperate by, in a reasonably timely manner, communicating; providing to CLF documents and information, and changes in Client's circumstances including: finances, property, address, contact information, employment, and activation to military duty; reading, studying, and signing the Petition and other documents under oath; and be present and on time for all hearings and meetings.
- Reasonable Investigation. Client will act in good faith and use best efforts in obtaining complete and accurate Information.
- Notify CLF Before Acting. Client will promptly notify CLF before making property and financial transactions that you do not normally make, such as giving money to family or friends, withdrawing money from any retirement account, incurring new debt (such as purchasing a car, using a credit card, taking out a payday loan, etc.), selling or giving away property. Such transactions—whether before the Case is filed or while the Case is pending—can be undone by the trustee and you may lose that property.
- New Interests to Property. Client will promptly inform CLF of an inheritance, life insurance proceeds, lawsuit award or settlement, or property received in a spousal property settlement agreement or divorce within 6 months after the Case is filed.
- No Payments on Debts Being Discharged. Client will not make payments on debts being discharged in the bankruptcy while the Case is pending.

6. Communications and Permissions. Client authorizes CLF to communicate with Client, Client's employer, creditors, and any other entity CLF deems necessary by telephone (work, home, cellular), by fax, mail, and email. Client also authorizes CLF to fax, mail or email pages of the bankruptcy petition, schedules, Notice of Bankruptcy Filing, or any other documents CLF deems necessary to Client's employer, creditors, and any other entities CLF deems necessary. Client authorizes CLF to contact whomever necessary, including current and former employers and the IRS, to obtain any information CLF deems necessary, whether verbal or written, to support Client's disclosures and testimony in this Case.

7. Termination.

- a) Client may discharge CLF at any time subject to payment of any fees owed for services rendered by CLF based on "work done" as explained under Paragraph 1(c) above.
- b) CLF may withdraw its representation when CLF believes Client is not complying with Client's duties as outlined in this Agreement and in the bankruptcy notices provided before or at the initial consultation, or when Client is otherwise not engaging in proper conduct. When seeking withdrawal from this Case, CLF will abide to the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct and Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of Illinois.
- c) If Client breaches this agreement, Client will be responsible for attorney's fees and costs incurred by CLF that are associated with enforcing this agreement.

8. Authorization to run Credit Report. Client authorizes CLF to obtain Client's credit report.

9. Interpretation of this Agreement. The term "Client," is binding upon each signatory individually or jointly. The laws of the State of Illinois will apply in interpreting and enforcing this contract. Any changes to this agreement are void unless the change is in writing and signed by CLF or by CLF's authorized agent.

Mandatory Notice to Potential Clients with Primarily Consumer Debts as Required by U.S. Bankruptcy Code Sec. 527(a)(1)

(This information was taken verbatim from Official Form 201A, 11/11)

In accordance with Sec. 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation

($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income
($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization
($1,167 filing fee; $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman
($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.

Mandatory Disclosure to Potential Clients as Required by U.S. Bankruptcy Code Sec. 527(a)(2)

Corbin Law Firm, LLC is required by the Bankruptcy Code Sec. 527(a)(2) to inform potential clients about the following rules:

1. All information you give to Corbin Law Firm, LLC, the Bankruptcy Trustee, United States Trustee, or the Bankruptcy Court that is provided with your petition and thereafter during your case is required to be complete, accurate, and truthful.
2. All of your liabilities (all your debts) are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence your bankruptcy case. Bankruptcy is not a "pick and choose" proceeding. You cannot leave some debts in and leave some debts out. Everything must be included.
3. All of your assets are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence your bankruptcy case. The replacement values of your assets also need to be disclosed after a reasonable inquiry to establish such values. The replacement value is to be determined as of the date of the filing of the bankruptcy petition without deduction for costs of sale or marketing.
4. Your income and expenses must be accurately stated after a reasonable inquiry. Current monthly income, the amounts specified in §707(b)(2), and in a case under Chapter 13 of this title, disposable income (determined in accordance with §707(b)(2)) are required to be stated after reasonable inquiry.
5. The Bankruptcy Code requires you to perform certain tasks including filing certain documents with the Court. Corbin Law Firm, LLC will notify you of the need and time limits for performing these tasks. If you fail to meet these deadlines, your case may automatically be dismissed, and you may be barred from refiling a case.

All of the information you provide during your case may be subject to an audit by the United States Department of Justice. The U.S. Trustee is required by statute to audit 1 out of every 250 cases. Failure to follow the above rules may result in your case being dismissed and you may not be allowed to refile. You could also be subject to Criminal Sanctions including JAIL and FINES.

Mandatory Notice to Potential Clients about Bankruptcy and Alternatives to Bankruptcy as Required by U.S. Bankruptcy Code Sec. 527(b)

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER.

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

1. Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial to you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules, and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a "trustee" and by creditors.
2. If you choose to file a chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.
3. If you choose to file a chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a bankruptcy judge.
4. If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than chapter 7 or chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.
5. Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

CORBIN LAW FIRM, LLC

Mandatory Instructions to Potential Clients as Required by U.S. Bankruptcy Code Sec. 527(c)

The instructions below are required by the Bankruptcy Code and explain how to:

1. figure out Replacement Value;
2. calculate Current Monthly Income (CMI);
3. figure out Reasonably Necessary Living Expenses;
4. calculate Disposable Income;
5. determine asset Exemptions;
6. list Creditors.

1. How to figure out Replacement Value

The replacement value for items acquired for personal, family, or household use, is the price a retail merchant would charge for an item of that kind, taking into consideration the age and condition of the item on the day of your bankruptcy filing.

It is important to emphasize that replacement value is not what you would sell the item for in a flea-market. Replacement value is what you would pay a retail store for the similar item, in similar age and in similar condition.

Because most retail stores do not sell used items, your best bet to determine replacement value is to check stores that sell used items to the public, such as used furniture stores, musical instrument stores, used car dealerships, etc.. Alternatively, you can check online sites such as eBay, Craigslist, or similar online markets.

Example: Assume that you have a DVD player that is three years old. You have been using the DVD player regularly, and it works. The replacement value for the DVD player would be the price a used goods store would give that item considering its age and condition.

2. How to calculate Current Monthly Income

To calculate your monthly income you must total ALL income received in the 6 months before the month of your bankruptcy filing and divide that total by 6 to get the monthly average.

Income that must be included (if applicable) are:

- Wages and salaries;
- Self-Employment Income;
- Investment Income;
- Interest Income;
- Contributions from any member in your household who is contributing on a regular basis to household expenses; and
- Money earned from side jobs

Income that is not included:

- Benefits under the Social Security Act;
- Payments to victims of war crimes or crimes against humanity on account of their status as victims of such crimes; and
- Payments to victims of international terrorism (as defined in Section 2331 of Title 18) or domestic terrorism (as defined in Section 2331 of Title 18) on account of their status as victims of such terrorism.

3. How to figure out Reasonably Necessary Living Expenses

To figure out your Reasonably Necessary Living Expenses you must total all expenses for the 6 months before the month of your bankruptcy filing and divide that total by 6 to get the monthly average.

In figuring out your necessary living expense, DO NOT INCLUDE your credit card payments, repayments of unsecured loans, past-due medical bills, taxes, etc.. Examples of reasonably necessary living expenses are:

- Rent or mortgage;
- Utilities;
- Internet;
- Cellular Phone;
- Laundry;
- Food;
- Transportation;
- Charitable contributions;
- etc...(an expense worksheet is provided for you)

4. How to calculate Disposable Income

If your monthly average income is greater than your monthly reasonably necessary living expenses, simply subtract the living expenses from the monthly income; the remainder is your disposable income. (i.e. subtract no. 3 above from no.2 above)

5. How to determine your asset Exemptions

Exemptions are defined dollar amounts for certain categories of property that you can subtract from EQUITY of that property and keep for yourself. In other words, the amount of the exemption is the amount of your equity that can't be taken away. If you file bankruptcy in Illinois, the applicable exemptions amounts are defined by Illinois law. Corbin Law Firm, LLC will assist you and advise you on the proper exemption to claim for your case.

6. How to list your Creditors

You must provide the information listed below for each Creditor you owe money to prior to filing for bankruptcy protection. You must list ALL your creditors. Bankruptcy is not a "pick and choose" proceeding. You cannot leave some debts in, and leave some debts out. Everything must be included. The term Creditor is defined broadly and includes any entity (store, hospital, credit card company, etc.) or person (family member, the person that sued you in court and won, etc.)

- Name and Address of Creditor;
  - o A dedicated bankruptcy notice address IF provided by creditor; or
  - o Address on most recent statements from creditor;
- Account number (if any);
- Amount currently owed;
- When was the debt created;
- Whether the debt is a secured or unsecured
  - o If secured:
    - Description of item securing the loan;
    - Current value of the item;
- Amount past due;
  - o List name and address of collection agency / law firm (if applicable)
- Lawsuit information (if being sued)
- Judgment information (if any)

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the

Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.
